It’s great to be back to Mass with real live people present.
Everything has gone very smoothly and please God before this year is over we will be back to something like normal with an even stronger Church and a better, bigger and more active Faith Community in Clontuskert. The Pastoral Council members with a lot of help from their friends have done mighty work in preparing Church, priest and community for re-entry to this new normal. Our first official Sunday Mass will be at 10.00am on Sunday 26th July – this day fortnight. Maria Brennan is our new Communications Officer and please God she will, on Sunday next and maybe during some other day explain during the week what you need to expect on arrival at the Church for our first Sunday back in St. Augustine’s Church Clontuskert.
